Simon graduated from Ambassador International University in Zambia in 2019. He is currently traveling with Gospelink's Field Director, John Prater, for the purpose of bringing attention to the pressing need for funds at AIU.

Gospelink is a missions organization with a vision to link sponsoring individuals, families, churches, and groups with church-planting preachers in other nations.

Simon is a part of Gospelink's Church Planting Initiative in Zambia. He was on the most recent Voices of Zambia team that toured the West and East coasts.
